2009 CBBF Junior Mr. Canada Darnell Collins signs to FUSION BODYBUILDING

For Immediate Release

GUELPH, Canada – January 18, 2010 – FUSION BODYBUILDING proudly announces the signing of Darnell Collins to a supplement sponsorship contract. Darnell, who recently won the CBBF Junior Mr. Canada, is a full-time business student who has just completed only his first year of competitive bodybuilding.

Darnell's success can be attributed to his using his head as much as his muscles. "Research. Dedication. Persistence. These are the keys that will help you when you're starting up, working out and competing. The more you learn, the more you can apply to what you're doing. That makes you more efficient and helps you accomplish your goals better and faster," says Darnell.

"Darnell is exactly the type of athlete that embodies what FUSION is all about. His smart, dedicated, no-nonsense attitude is what made him a national champion, and we wanted him to be part of the team. He understands there aren't any shortcuts to being the best bodybuilder you can be. There's just training smart and hard, and that honesty is what FUSION is all about," says FUSION co-president Adrian Burke. "We know that, as part of the FUSION team, Darnell will have everything he needs to take his training to the next level and continue to win titles."

Congrats on an incredibly successful amateur bodybuilding debut season.
